

Two IBAO Members Appointed to 2009-2010 IBAC National Boards

TORONTO, September 30, 2009, The Insurance Brokers Association of Ontario (IBAO) is pleased to announce the appointment of two of its members to the Insurance Brokers Association of Canada (IBAC)'s Board of Directors and Executive Committee.

Justin MacGregor, who previously served as President Elect, has been elected President of IBAC, and outgoing IBAO President Peter Blodgett will represent Ontario as a member of the IBAC National Board of Directors.

“Justin and Peter represent the best of Ontario brokers,” said IBAO CEO Randy Carroll. “They both exude energy and knowledge about the insurance industry and will continue to be committed to their clients and communities.”

Justin MacGregor is currently Executive Vice President of Martin Merry and Reid Limited, in Toronto. Throughout his 30 year career in the insurance industry, MacGregor has served as President of Hugh Wood Canada Ltd., as Executive Vice President of Willis Canada and as President of the Toronto Insurance Conference (TIC). MacGregor is also a member of the TIC, who is also a member of IBAC. Prior to moving to Canada in 1990, MacGregor was a Lloyds broker for Sedwick in London, England.

Peter Blodgett is the current President of IBAO and Darling Insurance Realty Ltd. in Peterborough. Blodgett has previously served as a Territory Director for IBAO. During his tenure, he served as the Chair of the Education Committee, Convention Committee and the Property Casualty Committee. He has continued to serve on the Education Committee and in 2005 he served as the Second Vice President on IBAO's Executive Committee. Blodgett has also served as the President of the Lindsay Brokers Association and the Peterborough Brokers Association.
